

I do NOT want my bank (Fifth Third), phone company, credit card companies, etc. to be exempt from the Indiana Telephone Privacy law due to the "existing relationship" clauses. The "no-call" laws are wonderful and have helped make my family's evenings peaceful by keeping the phone from ringing all the time with sales calls. If I want to talk to my bank, phone company, etc., I'll call them!